BUCKS COUNTY FREE LIBRARY'S DOYLESTOWN BRANCH

~ STORIES IN THE PARK ~

The Youth Services Librarians of the Bucks County Free Library's Doylestown Branch are on the go this summer, and we invite everyone young and old to a special series of Stories in the Parks. From 1:00 to 1:45 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays during the months of June and August, a Youth Services librarian from the Doylestown library branch will present a program in one of four of the Borough's parks. The lunchtime program will consist of music, stories, songs, jokes and silliness for youngsters up to the age of twelve. No registration is required. If you like, bring along a blanket, a picnic lunch and cold drinks. Children under 8 years of age must be accompanied by an adult.

During the month of July everyone is welcome to stop into the library for our scheduled summer reading programs, Catch the Reading Bug @ the Doylestown Library. For further information about either the Stories in the Park or the Summer Reading Programs please call the library at 215-348-9081, x1240 or stop into the library at 150 S.
